Tr'ondëk Hwëch'in DISBURSEMENT GRANT FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Who is eligible for the grant?

Every individual, regardless of age, enrolled as a Tr'ondek Hwëch'in (TH) citizen on October 31, 2023. Citizens who received an amount from previous disbursements must submit receipts or proof of purchase to receive this grant.

How much will be available to eligible citizens?

There is $1,300 available for each TH citizen from the fourth disbursement.

What happens to my allocation if I don't apply for it?

If you don't apply for the grant, your allotment will be set aside so you can access it later.

Why not just send everyone a cheque? Why have a grant application?

The General Assembly wanted conditions on how the money could be spent to ensure it was used in ways consistent with TH values. Also, the money is tax-free when issued as a grant.

What if my activity or purchase does not appear on the list?

The list of allowable activities or purchases was not meant to be exhaustive as there is no way to predict how people might want to spend their allocation. If your activity does not appear on the list, get in touch and we'll work with you on a solution.

Do I have to prove I used the grant for what I said I would?

Yes, it is every recipient's responsibility to provide receipts or proof of purchase to the TH Government to receive future grants.

Can my family and I pool our money and buy building materials for a cabin?

Yes.

How can a minor in my home access the money for sports registration?

TH citizens under the age of 18 must have a parent or guardian apply for the grant on his or her behalf.

How long does it take to get my disbursement?

Because of the large volume of applications, it takes two to four weeks to process disbursements after the completed application is received. Delays can occur due to statutory holidays or office closures.

What is the deadline for providing proof of purchase or receipts?

Receipts or proof of purchase for previous grants must be submitted to be eligible for the grant.

There is no deadline for submitting for receipts, but we encourage citizens to do so as soon as they can. If you have questions about what qualifies as proof of purchase, please contact the TH Finance Department. They are happy to assist.
